

Joseph Lang Bolt Action Rifle

Developed in 1898 the “Mauser 98” action has a proven pedigree as the most reliable sporting and military bolt action rifle ever made. The Joseph Lang rifle uses this classic action on all its sporting bolt action rifles. The combination of robust action and the precision of engineering ensure extreme accuracy and reliability in all conditions.

Specification of standard gun

Calibres

All centre fire calibres available up to .404 Jeffrey

Barrel

As required

Action

Modern Mauser “98” square bridge type

Safety

3 position safety

Trigger

As required

Stock

Pistol grip
Cheek piece
Chequered butt

Engraving and finish

with colour hardened, blued or bright finish.

Case

Light weight leather rifle case with accessories

Weights of guns

Varies according to calibre

Options & Extra's

Combination foresight
Ramp foresight
¼ Rib
1 standing express sight
1 standing plus 1 leaf express sight
1 stand plus 2 leaf express sight
Barrel band & swivels (fixed or QD)
Threading for moderator, with cap
Lang pat fixed mounts
Pivot mounts
Claw mounts
H&H style side mounts
Strap over comb
Extended guard tang
Extended magazine box
Exhibition wood
Grip cap box
Heel & Toe plates
Leather covered recoil pad
Silver oval
Gold oval
Gold initials- up to 3
#Gold name engraving
#Name & border engraving
#Full traditional scroll engraving

Deluxe scroll/Game scene/carved engraving POA