

Stephen Grant Self Opening Twelve Twenty Side by Side Sidelock Ejector

First introduced in 1925 by Charles Lancaster, the "Twelve Twenty" is a 12 bore gun built on a 20 bore action. Sporting the classic fluted fences synonymous with Grant and Incorporating Bakers self-opening mechanism patented in 1913 the "Twelve Twenty" is the ideal grouse or walked up quail gun.

Specification of standard gun

Calibres

12g only

Chambers

2 ¾"

Barrels

Chopper lump 28", 29", 30" as standard

Chokes

Fixed, to clients requirements

Rib

Concave, flat top or Churchill type

Action

Traditional square bar or rounded bar

Safety, triggers & Guards

Manual or automatic safe

Double trigger

Flat or rolled edge guard

Stock

Straight hand

Chequered butt

Engraving and finish

Traditional Grant style bouquet and scroll with colour hardened or bright finish

Case

Lightweight leather motor case with accessories

POA

Weight of gun

Weight depends upon the specification but the following may be helpful as a guide

12 bore.....from 6lb 4oz

Options & Extra's

Spare strikers

Extra barrels

Interchangable Teague chokes (5)

Exhibition wood

Heel & Toe plates

Silver oval

Gold oval

Gold letters- up to 3

Leather covered recoil pad

Deluxe scroll/Game scene/carved engraving POA

Prices subject to vat at current rate